

Directions

PLEASE NOTE:

This route is suitable for all vehicles.
 Preferably SUVs, but more suitable for all vehicles when raining.

Follow these signs from the Kromrivier or Zuurberg turn off's

From Port Elizabeth to Barefoot Addo Elephant Lodge - Suggested for self-drive - Suited for Sedan & SUVs travelling from Port Elizabeth, take the N2 Highway towards Grahamstown & Cradock. At one stage the road will split to the left - stay on the N10 towards Cradock. You will pass Nanaga Farm Stall on your right. Approximately 75km from Port Elizabeth you will find the town of Paterson on the right. Continue past Paterson in the Cradock direction for an additional 13.2km. You will find the Addo Palace and Kromrivier road signs on your left. Turn left on to the gravel road. In 14.5km you will reach Addo Palace, continue past Addo Palace for 11km until you reach our reserve gate. En route on the gravel road you will see our Barefoot Addo Elephant Lodge signs along the way. Safe travels.

From Port Elizabeth to Barefoot Addo Elephant Lodge - Zuurberg Mountain Pass, Suited SUVs only!

From Port Elizabeth take the Motherwell Road to Addo (R335) 1,5 km before the Addo Elephant National Park main gate turn left at the "Zuurberg" sign. Addo Elephant Lodge and Safaris is 33km from this turn off. Travel towards Zuurberg Mountain village, once you reach Zuurberg Mountain Village pass the main hotel entrance, which should be on your right, follow the gravel road around the mountain. Please be cautious on this route. Follow the Barefoot Addo Elephant Lodge distance road signs to the lodge.

Please Note - Kromrivier is suitable for all vehicles unless it is raining, otherwise use the Zuurberg pass. Phone lodge for advice before embarking.

NB: PLEASE NOTE THAT ALTHOUGH WE BORDER THE NATIONAL PARK, WE ARE APPROXIMATELY A FIFTY MINUTE DRIVE AWAY FROM ADDO.